

VANISHED, WITHOUT A TRACE

Have you been forced to abandon recovery of an unpaid debt, because you do not have a current address for the debtor, or they have disappeared with no forwarding details? If the answer to this question is yes, ORJ can help.

We offer a comprehensive and effective debt recovery service; which goes far beyond standard chasing letters that can often be ignored. Not only will we obtain and enforce court judgments on your behalf; we can also find your debtors. Using external, specialist agents, we can trace any individual for a modest fixed fee*; on a no trace, no fee basis.

Success rates are high; with the vast majority of traces producing a positive result and a reliable address for the debtor. In the small minority of cases where the individual cannot be found, there are no fees whatsoever to pay.

As soon as a forwarding address is identified, proceedings will be issued and judgment obtained and enforced. Where appropriate, the debtor will be made bankrupt to ensure that all of their assets are available to repay your outstanding debt. ORJ are happy to provide fixed and / or capped rates for all debt recovery work.

So if you have unpaid debts of more than £5,000 and you believe that the debtor may attempt to evade payment, contact our debt recovery specialist, Michael Smyth, on 01785 275374 for an initial (free of charge) consultation.

(*Standard tracing fee is currently £50.00 plus VAT)
